

9-7. APPEALS AND GRIEVANCES

(5) Actions in connection with reassignment or return of an employee under this subchapter are not covered by grievance procedures. However, employees may request a third level review under the provisions of section 9-6.c.

9-8. CREDITING SERVICE TOWARD COMPLETION OF THE PROBATIONARY PERIOD

a. Movement to other supervisory or managerial positions during probation.

(1) If a supervisory employee moves during probation to a managerial position, the employee must begin a new one-year probationary period in the managerial position. An exception to this requirement may be made, and time in the supervisory probationary period applied to the one-year managerial probationary period, under the same conditions specified in section 9-4.a.

c. Credit toward subsequent probationary period. (1) Operating Administrations shall determine the extent to which probationary service is creditable when an employee is permanently placed in a nonsupervisory or non-managerial position, or in nonpay status, or the employee has a break in service.

d. Temporary service prior to probation. Operating Administrations shall determine the extent to which temporary service in a supervisory or managerial position prior to probation shall be credited toward meeting probationary period requirements, except as required in section 9-4.c.
